

Linda Grizely

Linda Grizely (pronounced Grizzly, like the bear) is a personal finance educator, motivational speaker, and creator of the MeMoney™ Method - a mindset-first approach that helps women stop putting themselves in their own budget last. A former teen mom who went back to college at 48 and built a multi-six-figure career in financial services, she now helps women gain clarity, confidence, and control with their money - without lectures or judgment.
